HowAboutWe was founded in 2010 to help people fall in love and stay in love.

Since then, we've successfully launched a suite of best-in-class products, apps and media properties, including howAboutWe for Couples, the howAboutWe Media network, and our first standalone app, You&Me.

Headquartered in Brooklyn, New York, we've raised more than $23 million in financing to date and continue to rapidly scale in support of our original goal.

HOWABOUTWE DATING: THE OFFLINE DATING SITE

On HowAboutWe Dating, singles post date ideas by finishing the phrase "How about we...," with a date they'd like to go on. By using the date as a starting point, we provide a simple and intuitive way to meet new people in the real world.

Our subscription-based service is free to join with premium membership rates starting at just $8/month. Members can post dates from anywhere with the HowAboutWe Dating app for iPhone, iPad and Android. Featured by iTunes and Google Play for its seamless functionality and smart, gorgeous design, the app is now available in more than 30 countries and 16 languages.

HowAboutWe Dating also fuels an extensive network of white-label dating sites, through partnerships with more than 50 top-tier publishers such as AARP, ELLE, New York Magazine and Village Voice Media. Through this unique partnership model, we're able to dramatically expand our reach by bringing together a diverse community of singles under the unified goal of helping people connect offline and on great dates.

HOWABOUTWE FOR COUPLES: WE MAKE DATE NIGHT HAPPEN

HowAboutWe for Couples is a date night planning service for people in relationships. We find the best local date spots and work with them to create one-of-a-kind experiences for our members.

Couples choose from our curated collection of local dates and we take care of all the details. Members get the best possible value on every booking, one free date a month, access to exclusive events, extras -- like car service and flower delivery -- and free personalized date planning for special occasions.

HowAboutWe for Couples is currently available in five major cities across the U.S., including New York, San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles and Chicago. The subscription-based service is free to join, with a premium membership of just $18/month. We also offer a free, out-of-market version of this service that provides couples across the country curated at-home date packages and destination dates, perfect for planning unique adventures when visiting new cities.

Every date in our collection is chosen for its quality and originality. Unlike deals sites, we don't take commissions from the local businesses we work with, allowing us to partner with top-tier venues to provide exceptional experiences at a great value for our members. From waterfront yoga classes to exclusive chef's tables to sci-fi robot-making workshops, we help couples across the country discover and enjoy amazing dates.

HOWABOUTWE MEDIA: INDEPENDENT. INSPIRED CONTENT ON THE WAY WE LOVE

HowAboutWe Media is an independently-operated network of online publications -- Nerve.com, TheDateReport.com, Swimmingly.com and Famously.com -- devoted to exploring love from every angle. From practical advice on easing first date jitters, to a deeply-reported analysis of how cohabitation affects long-term relationships, the HowAboutWe Media network provides an honest view of the way we look for, find and maintain love in the modern world.

Our editorial team boasts writers and editors from diverse digital and print media backgrounds, including Gawker, Fast Company, VICE, Parenting and Entertainment Weekly, among others. Click here to learn more about HowAboutWe Media's premier advertising offerings.

In addition to our original online content, our book, Modern Dating: A Field Guide by Chiara Atik, offers real and relatable advice on navigating a dating landscape that's as complex and varied as ever.

YOU&ME: BEAUTIFUL MESSAGING. FOR TWO

You&Me is a free messaging app for couples by HowAboutWe.

You&Me was designed to give couples a better way to connect and make memories, with media-rich features to inspire the kinds of thoughtful gestures that keep relationships fresh. Through a private account, couples send beautiful, customedited photos and videos, share music and enjoy unique features like secret photo messaging. Everything couples share is thoughtfully organized and stored within the app, allowing them to easily recall their favorite moments.

You&Me is HowAboutWe's first standalone app, available now for iOS 7 for iPhone through the iTunes App Store. Get the app.

MEET THE FOUNDERS

Aaron Schildkrout and Brian Schechter founded HowAboutWe in 2010 after realizing the online dating industry was broken, designed to keep people online and subscribed, instead of offline and in love. Then, they came up with the powerful idea of creating an online dating site that was actually about dates.

Four years and millions of dates later, they've successfully grown this vision beyond the first date, to helping people at every stage of their relationship. Through its network of unique properties, HowAboutWe has now completely redefined the online dating industry by building products that help people fall in love and stay in love.

Former teachers from Boston with no traditional business or technical experience, Brian and Aaron have built HowAboutWe into a thriving company with millions of users worldwide. As respected voices in the startup community, they frequently share insights on entrepreneurship and innovation and have spoken at SXSW, Slate Future Tense, Atlanta Digital Summit, NY Tech Meetup, Internet Week NYC, TEDx and more.
